The New York Life Insurance Company has been in existence fornicen years. Its capital has strained the sum of $1,500,000, invested in State Stocks, Bonds, and Mortzance on Real Estata.

We think it a most asse and profitable mode of investing money. The profits fuure to the benefit of the insurer, and have averaged not less than 20 per cent. Per annum on the premium paid.

Bestdes these investments in atocks, Ac., the law of New York requires, as additional scurrity, that $00,000 shall be deposited with the State Jompts. Her, to meet any lawful demands which the Company may fall to pay.

Company is in a flurishing condition.
